

DeAnna Banks

The Coalition for Public Safety Training in Schools, Inc.

DeAnna Banks was born in Washington, D.C. and raised in Maryland. She received her Bachelors of Arts in Business Management from Bennett College and received her Masters of Information Technology from Towson University.

She has been a teacher for Prince George's County Public Schools for over ten years. She is also a licensed realtor for the State of Maryland. Some of my contributions include: Mathematics and Reading Success (MARS): Afterschool program for parents and students; Coordinator and Teacher (2011 – present), Smithsonian Institute (Teach It Forward): Cohort group to combine social studies and reading curriculum. (2012 – 2013), Facilitator, District Wide Training Reading Language Arts: (2014), and Reading Language Arts Grade 3-5 Curriculum Writing: (2014). My greatest accomplishment is that I am a mother of twin sons, James and John. One is a Fire Fighter and the other is in the process of training to also join the Fire Department.