

William C. Taylor

President and Founder of
The Coalition for Public Safety Training in Schools, Inc.

William Taylor has a long and distinguished career in the building industry as a brick mason. He has been a brick mason since 1987 and worked as a journeyman bricklayer for the Architect of the Capitol for nine years. He is a certified tradesman and is certified to teach masonry by the District of Columbia.

Mr. Taylor was a masonry instructor at the University of the District of Columbia for seven years. He has served with distinction on Boards of Directors and as a trustee on the following Boards and committees:

- Maryland State Apprenticeship Council
- Southern Area Youth Services, Inc.
- The Prince George's Workforce Services Corporation
- BAC Local #1 – Apprenticeship and Training Fund, Foundation of Automotive and Construction Technology for Students
- Prince George's County Public Schools
- the Marble Tile and Terrazzo Workers Health and Welfare Fund.

He is a former trainer in the Construction Outreach Program, U.S. Department of Labor – Occupational Safety and Health Administration (OSHA).

Mr. Taylor is the President and Founder of the Coalition for Public Safety Training in Schools, Inc.